

MESSAGE FROM THE ROSH KOLLEL

Dear Friends,

Although the years seem to fly by, and we are now well into our 24th year of the Philadelphia Community Kollel, the Annual dinner is a time to pause and reflect, a time to look back at the past year and express gratitude to Hashem Yisborach for the tremendous siyata d'shmaya He has showered upon us, not only for this past year but since our inception in May of 2000.

We have seen steady and continuous growth of the Kollel learning, programs, and families throughout that time. As the community continued to expand, we too adapted to the learning needs of that growth.

Rabbi Yoel Dovid Zeffren and Rabbi Yosef Prupas have been at the forefront of the myriad programs and learning opportunities that the Kollel has been able to produce and offer. More than can be imagined goes on behind the scenes, and the hundreds of hours spent on creating and executing, improving and expanding in so many different areas are a reflection of their hard work and dedication to the Kollel and its mission. I thank them both for their friendship, teamwork, and dedication to the Kollel.

All of this could not have happened without the strong support of our baalei batim. Year in, year out, so many of our dear friends have supported our efforts, showing their extreme chashivus haTorah and their knowledge of the importance of Torah learning. The executive board members, and Dr. Israil Pendrak and David Kosloff in particular, have the Kollel on their minds constantly, assisting and advising in so many ways. Thank you to them and their respective families.

Mazel tov to tonight's special honorees who each connect on a deep level to the Kollel and the yungeleit of the Kollel.

יישר כוחך to R' Shimon Frank for all his expert work he does around the Kollel, attending to issues both big and small. Your devotion is very much appreciated. Mazel tov on the publication of Clear & Concise sefer that has been produced in conjunction with the dinner.

Thank you to our dedicated office administrator Mrs. Eve Rosen, who takes care of so many tasks at the Kollel, all with professionalism and respect for Torah learning.

אחרון אחרון חביב, we recognize the impact of our yungeleit, both past and present, through their serious Torah learning on a daily basis. You set the tone for the b'nei Torah in our city. And a big thank you to the backbone of the Kollel and the yungeliet: the n'shei chayil of the Kollel.

Finally, thank you all for joining us this evening. Your support enables the Kollel to maintain and continuously add quality yungeleit and spread Torah throughout the community. May Hashem bestow His bracha upon all who support His Torah.

Rabbi Yechiel Biberfeld

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD

WITH GRATITUDE TO HASHEM, I would like to welcome you to the 23rd annual dinner of the Philadelphia Community Kollel and to thank you for joining us and for your generous support throughout the year. Your support is especially important at this time, given the unprecedented challenges facing Klal Yisroel.

Mazel tov and a big yasher koach to tonight's honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff and Sarah Rosner, Guests of Honor; Rabbi and Mrs. Yitzchok and Frimi Levi, Young Leadership Award recipients; and Rabbi and Mrs. Yerachmiel and Yitty Lichtman, Alumni of the Year. Thank you for your long-standing and extraordinary commitment to our community and the Kollel. May you go from strength to strength.

A tremendous thank you to our hard-working Dinner Committee: Rabbi and Mrs. Tuvia Goldstein, dinner chairpersons; Dr. and Mrs. Chesky Schneider, journal chairpersons; and, of course, Ted and Phyllis Kosloff, Honorary Journal Chairpersons and steadfast supporters. The board and I would like to thank the Kollel rebbeim, their wives, and the administration for their unending efforts on behalf of the Kollel and the community: Rosh Kollel, Rav Yechiel Biberfeld and Mrs. Biberfeld; the Associate Rosh Kollel, Rav Yoel Dovid Zeffren and Mrs. Zeffren; Director of Community Programming, Rav Yosef Prupas and Mrs. Prupas; and Mrs. Rosen, our indispensable office manager.

This year's theme is the "Kollel Effect," but this is not a new concept. Our Kollel yungeleit and their wives, under the leadership of the above-mentioned Kollel staff, have been having an incredible effect on strengthening Torah and mitzvos in our community for 23 years.

This fall the Kollel welcomed a new second-seder Rosh Chaburah, Rabbi Moshe Derhy, and two new Kollel Rabbis and their families moved to our community to join the Kollel- Rabbi and Mrs. Yosef and Nechama Franklin and Rabbi and Mrs. Binyomin and Esti Kahan. Welcome! With this new addition there are eight full-time and two-part time yungeleit learning and teaching Torah at the Kollel. As always, the Kollel has had impactful programming this year that reached many men, women and children in our community.

I would like to thank the board members for their dedication and guidance, the rabbonim of our community, and Rav Shmuel Kamenetsky, shlit"a, may he have a refua sheleima, and the Roshei Yeshiva of the Philadelphia Yeshiva for supporting the Kollel.

The recent events in Eretz Yisroel and the wave of anti-Jewish hatred around the world has affected all of us. On a positive note, it has inspired unprecedented levels of achdus that would have been unimaginable in September 2023, but it also left many of us feeling vulnerable and uncertain what to do. As we turn to our gedolei hador for answers, they remind us to daven to Hashem, who runs this world; they tell us to do teshuva, and, among other things, to increase our Torah learning. This is where our community Kollel plays a vital role. The sounds of ever-present Torah learning emanating from this fine institution pierce the heavens and advocate for our community and for all of Klal Yisroel. Our job is to keep it going by being part of the learning, by supporting the learning, or by doing both. There is a war going on in the physical and spiritual realms, and our talmidei chachamim are also soldiers, soldiers in the army of Hashem. Thank you all for supporting our Community Kollel and together we will iy"H merit victory over all of our enemies and complete redemption speedily in our day!

CLEAR AND CONCISE

is a daily practical halacha Q and A writeup sent out via Whatsapp or text.

Rabbi Shimon Frank has covered topics including Hilchos Shabbos, Brachos, and Basar b'chalav in a user friendly format that is, well, clear and concise!

Brachos- Ikar V'taful:

Q
What bracha should I make on sushi?

As mentioned earlier, when there are two or more foods eaten together as one, the bracha is made on whichever food constitutes the majority (51%). Oftentimes the rice is the majority and the bracha would be mezonos. However, sometimes it is hard to determine. In those cases, one would need to make separate brachos by taking off some of each ingredient or on other foods. Although this is the optimal way, those that always recite mezonos on sushi have what to rely on.

ע"י במב"ב סי' ר"ב סק"א ושור"ע סי' ר"ח סי"ו, וכיון שאע"כ כל מידי דדין התבאר מונחת שא"ע, ב"בב"ל ר"ח סי' ר"ד ע"ד, ושע"כ ר"ח סק"א, א"מ ח"ד סי' מ', התבאר מונחת על סושי יש להם על מה לסתור (פסקים). (נבדקו שמעתי"מ ממוח"ס שכמעט בכלום, יש רוב ביותן).

ומא דבי איתיה, כל השנה הלכות בכל יום, מנסה לז שמו"ב בן עולם הבא

Brachos- Ikar V'taful:

Last week we spoke about the concept of majority being the Ikar (main). Now we will speak about a mezonos ingredient being the Ikar.

Q
What bracha do I make on cholent if it has meat, barely, and potatoes?

A
The correct bracha for cholent containing barely is mezonos, even if barely is not the majority. Barely, and any of the five grains that was added to a mixture for taste, is always considered the Ikar (main), and the bracha on the mixture is mezonos. Large potatoes that are eaten separately, need a ha'adama, but if all the foods are usually eaten together, no separate bracha is required when a potato occasionally comes into your spoon separately.

שור"ע אור"ח סי' ר"ח סי"ב, ערוה"ש סי' ר"ב סק"ב, ובענין גריסי פניה ע"י במב"ב סק"ט, אור"ח סי' ס"ח.

ומא דבי איתיה, כל השנה הלכות בכל יום, מנסה לז שמו"ב בן עולם הבא

Brachos- Ikar V'taful:

Q
I see that one of the ingredients in licorice is flour. Does that mean that the bracha on licorice is mezonos?

No, the bracha for licorice is shehokol. The rule that a mezonos ingredient in a mixture is always considered the Ikar applies only when it's in the mixture in a significant way, i.e., to give taste. In licorice, where flour is a binding agent, we treat the mezonos as a regular ingredient and the bracha would be based on majority. The same halacha applies to flour added to something (e.g., sauce, soup) to thicken the mixture.

grandfather, and great-grandfather

DAVID WACHS, A”H

Connecting to his wife Judy’s parents, Abe and Fannie Birenbaum,
he began to cherish the Jewish People, his heritage, and the desire to help them.

He was known as a “tough Jew,” and not only fought for his own right to be a proud Jew, but also took up the cause of those who were in need.

He was charitable and kindhearted, loved to connect with people, especially his family.
He was regal and loved Israel and the Jewish Nation.

He leaves behind a wonderful family of many children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren,
who will forever be his legacy.

May his memory be for a blessing.

OUR HONOREES

JEFF AND SARAH ROSNER, together with their children Yisroel, Yossi a”h, and Rina, have become integral and beloved members of the Greater Philadelphia Jewish community since their move here from Raleigh, North Carolina in 2011. Jeff, a Long Island native, met Sarah at the University of North Carolina when he was in law school, and they initially settled in the Raleigh Jewish community. Upon moving to Wynnewood, Jeff started Rosner Settlement Services, and with Hashem’s help, he has successfully expanded his business efforts into Florida as well. Members of Congregation Beth Hamedrosh and Chabad of Penn Wynne, the Rosners have made their mark on a broad spectrum of both local and international Jewish community organizations including Chasdei Eliyahu, Bikkur Cholim of Philadelphia, Chai Lifeline, Mercaz Daf Yomi, and Moshia. Sarah, who is a professional violinist, health and nutrition coach, and who is working on certification to be a therapeutic trauma support coach, serves as Vice President of the local Amit chapter and as a board member of the Wynnewood/Overbrook Mikvah, and she is active in Beth Hamedrosh’s Women’s Organization.

Jeff and Sarah consider the Kollel the heart and soul of the Philly community. When their children were younger, Masmid and Keshet were the highlights of their week. Two years ago, when their son Yossi a”h was diagnosed with a brain tumor, the Rosners faced that unspeakable challenge by bolstering their emuna, tefilla, and limud haTorah. Jeff began davening regularly at the Kollel and increased his daily learning along many channels, including Kollel Boker and steady chavrusa learning. Sarah also increased her participation in Kollel women’s classes and programs. The Rosners saw the Kollel rabbis and their wives as a haven of support during those challenging times, and the relationship they built with the Kollel continues to flourish and grow.

The Philadelphia Community Kollel
is pleased to honor

MR. AND MRS. JEFF AND SARAH ROSNER

The Rosners' quiet support of so many community institutions has strengthened those mosdos and strengthened the Rosners in turn.

Jeff and Sarah's ongoing commitment to Torah, avoda and chesed has pulled them upward and inspired us all.

May they continue to fill their cup, and may it continue to overflow to water and nourish others!

RABBI YITZCHOK AND FRIMI LEVI and their family moved to Lower Merion from Rhawnhurst in 2015 and have been involved with the Kollel ever since. At that time, Rabbi Levi was the Philadelphia City Director of NCSY, building upon his years at the Jerusalem Kollel and Ner L'Elef, and their move here was designed to enhance family and student participation in the kiruv rechokim and kiruv krovim that Rabbi Levi and his wife are so devoted to. In that position, both Rabbi and Mrs. Levi impacted hundreds of teens and their families and drew them closer to passionate, committed, Torah-true Yiddishkeit. Even though Rabbi Levi left NCSY in 2022 to work in real estate and construction, he and his wife Frimi continue to be committed to meeting the spiritual needs of the klal in both formal and informal ways. Frimi, a school psychologist, is a popular kallah teacher and mentor and a member of the Lower Merion Community Mikvah board. Rabbi Levi teaches Mishnayos to boys at The New Shul on Shabbos afternoons, spends mornings in the Kollel as a founding member of Kollel Boker, and has steady evening chavrusas with Kollel yungeleit.

The Levis and their mishpacha expanded their relationship with the Kollel even further with Frimi's parents' move to Lower Merion in 2020. Mr. and Mrs. Avraham and Shirley Walfish have become a core part of the Kollel chevra, and it gives them and their children mutual pride and nachas to see how each has integrated into the fabric of our community!

The Philadelphia Community Kollel
is proud to bestow the Young Leadership Award to

RABBI AND MRS. YITZCHOK AND FRIMI LEVI

The Levis' rock-solid commitment to limud haTorah is the foundation of everything they do.

Their involvement in both front-line and behind-the-scenes community chesed serves as a model for others, and their positivity and sheer joy in avodas Hashem uplifts everyone in their orbit.

May they see continued nachas
from their mishpacha, and may their mispacha see

RABBI AND MRS. YERACHMIEL AND YITTY LICHTMAN

joined the Kollel in 2012 after his years of learning in Long Beach, Brisk, and BMG. After four years of full-time learning here in Philly, Rabbi Lichtman, who hails from Chicago, started teaching in Caskey Torah Academy while simultaneously attaining his Masters degree in Special Education. He has been a beloved 2nd and 3rd grade rebbe there for the past seven years, and he is admired for his warmth and genuine love for his talmidim and talmidos. Rabbi Lichtman's indefatigable chinuch efforts brought him to partner with Rabbi Dovie Steier in running Camp Rayim, a Lower Merion-based boys' day camp, which gives him a summer stage for his ruach and Torah-teaching. Those efforts have also found expression in his new position as Youth Director at The Merion Shtiebel. He has also served as a gabbai at The New Shul since its inception.

Mrs. Yitty Lichtman has out-of-town-Kollel roots, as she was born in Scranton while her father was learning in the Kollel there. She grew up in Lakewood and came back to Pennsylvania with her move here in 2012. She worked for many years for Goldstar Rehab and currently works for Primetex Inc. Rabbi and Mrs. Lichtman are an integral part of the Kollel family. From his famous grammen at the Kollel Purim seuda way back when, to his current devoted attendance at Kollel Boker, from Masmid to Keshet to alumni events, R' Yerachmiel, his Rebbetzin, and their children Malka, Yechezkel and Elazar have formed a special bond with the Kollel families and have positively impacted our entire community.

The Philadelphia Community Kollel
honors

RABBI AND MRS. YERACHMIEL AND YITTY LICHTMAN

as Alumni of the Year

R' Yerachmiel brought positive energy to the Bais Medrash during his years in the Kollel, and he now radiates that energy in Caskey Torah Academy, Camp Rayim, and the Merion Shtiebel.

R' Yerachmiel and his Rebbetzin are role models for so many as they teach and inspire those around them to grow in their commitment to Torah ideals.

May Hashem bentch them to raise their beautiful children to fulfill all the dreams they have for them!

You are worthy honorees. You are wholeheartedly committed to supporting the Kollel and other Torah institutions. You devote part of each day to learning Torah even with your business and family responsibilities.

We extend our sincere thanks and gratitude to

RABBI YECHIEL BIBERFELD AND RABBI YOEL ZEFFREN

for working so diligently and vigorously to build the Philadelphia Community Kollel into a viable and vibrant center for Torah learning. We greatly appreciate the energy, enthusiasm and planning that Rabbi Biberfeld and Rabbi Zeffren have exerted as the Kollel has moved from above Simi's Place to the Paramount rental and to its present location. Throughout these periods of growth, the Kollel has maintained its high standards for learning Torah and for guaranteeing that it would always be a place where individuals with diverse backgrounds would be welcome, feel comfortable, and grow in learning at their own pace. Rabbi Biberfeld and Rabbi Zeffren had the foresight to have Rabbi Yosef Prupas and all present and past Kollel rabbis join them as a united group to continue the growth of the Kollel.

It is our zechus and pleasure
To offer this tribute.
To our children Yerachmiel and Yitty
And describe your attributes.

Yerachmiel, your simchas haachaim
Is apparent to all who meet you.
Your love for spreading Yiddishkeit
Can be superseded by few.

Establishing a mikdash me'at,
Running a camp in the summer,
All with an ayin tova,
And a geshmak like no other.

Yitty, you manage to accomplish
So much in your quiet way.
With a heart for the individual and the klal,
Such care and concern you display.

Together you are a real team,
Examples for your friends and family,
Exhibiting true ahavas Yisroel,
And of course, much sensitivity.

In all of your accomplishments,
As your parents we take pride.
You should stay with this derech
And advance stride after stride.

It is said that it takes a village to raise a child,
but it takes the mesirus nefesh of the families to build and sustain a Kollel.

Thank you to the families who have built the Kollel and provided my family and many others with new opportunities for learning and growing and for embracing us as family.

I have been blessed to learn much from the Rabbis and their Rebbetzins who reach out and welcome others into their homes and into their families.

They are always willing to share their Torah
as well as learn Torah from others.

But... I so appreciate their children and their children's willingness to make room for guests and friends!
