

DAVID & CYNDILEE KOSLOFF
Guests of Honor

David Kosloff, who traces his roots to Lithuania and Russia, was born and raised in Cherry Hill, New Jersey. A scion of a family who are pillars of the Greater Philadelphia Jewish community, he attended Kellman Academy Jewish Day School in South Jersey and then Akiba Hebrew Academy, together with his sisters Rachel (Scheinmann) and Abby (Greene). After graduating from University of Pennsylvania in 1990, David joined his grandfather Irving S. Kosloff and his father Ted Kosloff at Roosevelt Paper Company, the family business founded by his grandfather in 1932. Roosevelt Paper is a leading supplier of generic paper and paperboard in North America. David is currently the company president, in the office next to Ted, who continues to support and advise.

Cyndi, who traces her roots to Russia, also grew up in Cherry Hill together with her sister Caren and in fact, attended the same Hebrew day school as David. She is a graduate of Cornell University and Rutgers Law School and served as a real estate attorney in New York City and in Philadelphia for six years until she “retired” to raise their three sons, Sam, Saul, and Jonah. She has continually played an active role in various community institutions, including serving as PTO president of her children’s day school. Cyndi is also a certified fitness instructor. Cyndi and David both perpetuate the values of community service and love of learning that they received from their parents, Ted and Phyllis Kosloff and Stan and Rita Freeman.

David and Cyndi play multifaceted roles in Kollel activities. David is a board member, attends many shiurim, and has faithfully learned with chavrusas, particularly with Rabbi Chesky Weiss, for many years, and currently learns with Rabbi Yoel Dovid Zeffren. Cyndi regularly attends women’s events and shiurim and has served as a shiur coordinator as well. Their sons have attended Masmid and learned with chavrusos over the years. David and Cyndi share a close personal relationship with Kollel staff families, and they attribute much of their spiritual growth to the impact the Kollel has made on their lives.
